

Prof. Dr. Guido Santiago Tawil

Independent arbitrator since 2018. Senior Partner and Head of the International Arbitration, Administrative Law and Regulatory practices, M. & M. Bomchil (1993-2018). Commissioner, Argentina's Securities & Exchange Commission (1991-1993).

Chair Professor of Administrative Law at the University of Buenos Aires School of Law and member of its Ph.D. and Awards Committees (1984-2019).

Founding Member and President of the Latin American Arbitration Association (ALArb) (2011-2014), Co-Chair of the IBA's Arbitration Committee (2009-2010); of the IBA's Latin American Forum (2008) and member of the IBA's LPD Council (2011-2014); Governing Council Member of ICCA (2011-2019) and current member of its Advisory Board; Cochair of ICCA's Initiatives Committee, of its Task Force on Standards of Practice and member of its Nominations Committee; Member of the Foundation for International Arbitration Advocacy's (FIAA) Board of Trustees and former member of its Executive Committee; Court Member, SIAC (2021- ); Chair of SIAC's Latin America Regional Committee and Member of its Users Council Executive Committee (2017-2021); Court Member of the London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA) (2008-2013) and current member of the LCIA Company; Member of the ICC's Latin American Arbitration Group; Member of ITA's Academic Council (2004-2013); Member of the Administrative Law Institute of Argentina's National Law Academy and of the Argentine Chamber of Commerce (CAC) Advisory Committee.

Awarded with the Universidad de Buenos Aires School of Law Award (1991) for the best doctoral dissertation in all areas of law, with the "Alejandro E. Shaw Award" by the Buenos Aires Bar and with the "Konex Award (2016) for his legal contributions.

Received his law degree in 1983, an LL. M. in Administrative Law and Public Administration in 1986, and a Ph. D. in 1991, with the highest academic qualifications, all of them issued by the University of Buenos Aires School of Law.