

Klochenko Lilia
Ph.D. jur. | FCI Arb
arbitrator | adjudicator
mediator | conciliator | negotiator

E-mail: lilia@klochenkoarbitration.com
lnklochenko@gmail.com

Tel.: +971 58 600 5655 (UAE)
+ 43 664 5566 133 (Austria)
+ 7 903 775 6020 (Russia)

Education: holds a law and PhD jur. degrees from International Law Faculty of the Moscow State Institute of International Relations cum laude, is a Fellow at the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (London), is certified for international arbitration from the ICC Advanced Arbitration Academy; qualified for international mediation advocacy at Regent University (London); certified for Intercultural Mediation and Emotional Intelligence from BRDGES Academy (USA); certified by the International Islamic Center for Conciliation and Arbitration (IICRA) as arbitrator and expert in Islamic law and arbitration (2021); member of the mediation advocacy list at the International Mediation Institute (London). Certified under the UNCTAD Digital Identity for Trade and Development Program (2021), the UNCTAD International Merchandise Trade Statistics 2023 (IMTS) (2023) and under the CIETAC Program for the Application of the UN Convention on Contracts for the International Trade of Goods (CISG) (2022). Lilia is Russian qualified attorney at law.

Professional experience: Lilia has unique practical experience in Russian and international companies since 1991 until 2000; and since 2000 till 2024 has been leading her private practice as legal advisor and attorney at law.

Lilia participated as an advisor in projects to enter the Russian market for the biggest insurers from Germany, Austria, the Czech Republic, the USA, the largest specialized insurers for export credit insurance of France, the Netherlands, Belgium, the largest reinsurers of France and Germany; in complex legal support of Russian subsidiaries of foreign investors; in international share sale and purchase transactions of insurance companies, construction industrial enterprises, IT technology and communication companies, restaurant, industrial and financial holdings, transport and communication; NPF restructuring; in the reorganization and foundation of international holdings and(or) structures with the participation of companies in the jurisdictions of Russia, Ukraine, Kazakhstan, Austria, Switzerland, Liechtenstein, Luxembourg, Great Britain, the Netherlands, Cyprus and others; acted as a legal advisor in the settlement of losses of varying degrees of complexity and scope in the electricity industry, metallurgy, operation of sea vessels, aviation and aircraft industry, foreign trade operations in various industries; she is a day-to-day attorney on a wide range of competencies for companies in various fields of activity and industries.

Lilia represented private clients in state arbitrazh courts of all instances, including the Supreme Court of the Russian Federation, including in corporate disputes, tax disputes, antitrust disputes, appeal of transactions concluded under the foreign law, loss and(or) damage compensations, cross-border family disputes with an international element, recognition and enforcement of international arbitral awards, legal consulting on the arbitral awards enforcement procedure in Russia, Austria, Germany, France and other jurisdictions.

Lilia is a certified international arbitrator, since 2010 serves as arbitrator for domestic and international cases.

Lilia is included into the lists of recommended arbitrators, in particular, of the Maritime Arbitration Commission at the Chamber of Industry and Commerce of the Russian Federation, Vienna International Arbitration Centre (VIAC), Association Suisse de l'Arbitrage (ASA), China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission (CIETAC), German Institution for Arbitration (DIS); DIAC (Dubai International Arbitration Court); International Islamic Centre for Reconciliation and Arbitration (IICRA), Delos Arbitrators Database; International Arbitration court "Chamber of Arbitrators at the Union of Lawyers" (Belarus); listed mediation advocate at International Institute of Mediators (IMI).

Lilia strongly focuses her practice on dispute resolution, including international and domestic arbitrations. Lilia acted both as a party representative (counsel) or arbitrator, as an expert to the case in dispute resolution conducted under DIS, ICC, LCIA, VIAC, SCC, ICAC, MAC, RAC, SIAC, HKIAC, UNCITRAL and other Rules; and is currently mainly focusing on serving as an arbitrator in dispute resolution proceedings conducted under the Rules of various arbitral institutions and pure ad-hoc proceedings.

As an arbitrator, Lilia has strong experience in Maritime & Transport, Insurance & Reinsurance, Construction & Infrastructure, M&A, Complex Losses Settlements and International trade.

In Maritime cases the experience covers whole range of aspects: general average, demurrage, charter party, built/construction of vessels, sale and purchase of vessels, insurance, P&I Club aspects, and other related issues.

In reinsurance industry the experience widens in all kind of forms of reinsurance and reinsurance contracts and treaties for most kind of industries (transport, property, engineering, casualty, marine, nuclear energy, environmental losses, cyber losses, etc.)

Lilia has civil law background, educated additionally for common law and Islamic law.

Serving as arbitrator, with experience as co-arbitrator, presiding arbitrator and sole arbitrator, Lilia conducts proceedings in the style of "international arbitration", which means with a view to a prompt, efficient determination of the dispute with case by case adapted proceedings, including discovery or lengthy hearings.

Lilia has experience in successful mediation procedures in corporate, labor, family disputes, including in multi-cultural and multi-jurisdictional cases (in particular, between parties of Russian, German, Austrian, French, Hong Kong, Ukrainian, Byelorussian, Georgian, Tajik, Uzbek, and other origin).

Lilia has experience as adjudicator in international disputes (in particular, establishing market share of sales in corporate dispute; establishing the share of the impact of individual hazards on the negative consequences during the execution of works in a construction project).

Lilia is a member of the following professional associations: Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, Fellow; Russian Arbitration Association (Member of the Board since 2015), American Bar Association (ABA, member of the Construction Law and Dispute Resolution Sections, Ethic Committee, IT Technology Committee); International Bar Association (IBA, member of the Arbitration Committee, Insurance Law Committee, Banking Law Committee, Professional Ethics Committee); International Council for Commercial Arbitration (ICCA), Austrian Arbitration Association (AUAA), Swiss Chinese Law Association (SCLA), Association Suisse de l'Arbitrage (ASA), International Islamic Centre for Reconciliation and Arbitration (IICRA); Russian Arbitration Association (RAA); ArbitralWomen; signatory of the Equal Representation In Arbitration Initiative ERA Pledge.

Member of the Adjudication Committee of the Russian Arbitration Center.

Since 2017, as a member of independent NGO observers, Lilia participates in the work of Working Group II "Arbitration and Conciliation" and Working Group III "Settlement of Disputes between Investors and States" of UNCITRAL.

Lilia is a native Russian and Ukrainian speaker, and speaks English, German, French and Polish. Lilia is learning Chinese (Mandarin) and Arabic.

Research and teaching: Lilia authored and co-authored several monographs, textbooks and study guides, the author of about 120 scientific and scientific-practical articles, a frequent speaker at national and international conferences, seminars and roundtables.

Editorial Board Member of Arbitration.ru since its foundation until 2022.

Areas of interest: the origins and development of intercultural communications, history of diplomacy.