

Nina LAUBER-THOMMSEN, LL.M.

Email: nina@lauber-thommesen.com

Nationality: Norwegian

Legal background and qualification: Nordic - Norwegian Bar

Other particular experience: Swiss law (based in Switzerland since 2010)

Present Position:	Independent Arbitrator, Lauber-Thommesen Arbitration LLC, Geneva, Switzerland.
Areas of Specialization:	International commercial arbitration; commercial contracts.
Languages:	English, French, Scandinavian languages (Norwegian mother tongue).
Bar Admission:	Norwegian Bar (norsk advokatbevilling), 2010.
Education:	LL.M., International Dispute Settlement (MIDS), Geneva University Law School and Graduate Institute of International Studies, 2010-2011. Law Degree (Master of Laws), University of Bergen, 2003-2007.
Past Professional Experience:	Counsel, Lévy Kaufmann-Kohler, Geneva (CH), 2015-2023. Attorney-at-Law, Python & Peter, Geneva (CH), 2011-2015. Lawyer (training for Bar), Grahl-Madsen & Co., Bergen (NO), 2007-2010.
Arbitration Experience:	Presiding arbitrator, co-arbitrator, sole arbitrator, tribunal secretary and counsel to parties in international commercial arbitrations conducted under a variety of arbitration rules, including the ICC Rules, the Swiss Rules, the SCC Rules, the DIA Rules, the UNCITRAL Rules, the CAM Rules and the LCIA Rules, and many national arbitration acts and substantive laws from the civil law and common law traditions. Arbitration experience covers a broad spectre of international contracts such as works and services contracts, distribution and sales contracts, joint venture agreements, shareholder and share purchase agreements, and agency and licensing agreements, as well as a wide range of industries, in particular construction, energy, joint ventures and industrial cooperation, M&A, banking and finance, agency and distribution, sales contracts, licencing agreements and sports related disputes.
Selected Professional Associations:	Swiss Arbitration Association (ASA), Swedish Arbitration Association (SAA), International Association of Young Lawyers (AIJA), International Council for Commercial Arbitration (ICCA), Mute-Off Thursdays and Arbitral Women.
Selected Publications:	Introduction to the Swiss Rules 2021 and Commentary to Articles 33-35, in collaboration with Prof. Sébastien Besson, in: Swiss Rules of International Arbitration Commentary , 3 rd ed., collective book edited by Zuberbühler/Müller/Habegger, Schulthess 2023. Virtuelle forhandlinger i voldgift - Særlig om voldgiftsrettens kompetanse til å beslutte virtuell hovedforhandling, in collaboration with Haakon Orgland Bingen, in: Tidsskrift for forretningsjus , Vol. 27, Issue 2, 2021.